

Kay      My Difference Maker      February, 23 2010

My difference maker is my mom because she is a good helper she gives me lots of advice on math. My mom is very brave she isn't scared of spiders. I really admire my mom because she is special to me in my heart she will always be. My mom gives me lots of support on my hand ball games or soccer and volley ball. My mom is really smart she is good at math doing P,E and lots more.

Shaylyn

My difference Maker Feb 23/10

My difference Maker is Adam Lambert. Just because he lost American Idol he still didn't give up on his dream. That tells me that I shouldn't give up on my dream no matter what. Now Adam Lambert has his own Album and hes going places. He is someone I look up to. When I here him sing that reminds me not to give up on my dream. I hope that one day I could meet him and ask for some advise from him. My dream is to become a famous Singer and Adam Lambert can help me make that dream come true.

My difference maker is Roberto Luongo. He changed my mind to be a good supportive goalie. I was going to be a right wing in hockey but he changed my mind now I want to be a good goalie. His favorite player was a goalie to, he had a future to be a goalie because he had a difference maker to a oiler goalie. He was helping me and have wisdom by trying your best and to save as much as you can by your-self. This is why I admire Roberto Luongo.

Payton

My Difference Maker      Feb.25/10

My mom is my difference maker she's always there for me. She loves me, and she believes me she's a role model in my life.

She's always there to help me through the good and the bad, my mom taught me to cook .Taught me to love life and to forgive.

My Mom is My Difference Maker